Unsung The Album is the first full and official release on Baby Bash's own label, Bashtown. The album features four singles that have all spun on radio including "Slide" featuring Miguel, "Break It Down" featuring Too Short and "Dance All Night" featuring Problem as well as the new single at radio now "Low Key Popping". The album features a wide range of artists who reach a broad spectrum of fans including the Grammy nominated Miguel as well as Frankie J, Problem, Too Short, Z-Ro, Snow the Product, Paul Wall, Clyde Carson, Marcus Manchild, Paula Deanda and more. In Unsung The Album, Bash sought to focus on his core Latin leaning base while also super serving the mainstream fan base he's built over time with radio singles.
