As described in the liner notes, this compilation is, "like a mixtape that we made with love". 17 new songs from all your favorite Red Scare bands, past and present. Red Scare Industries was a bedroom label that started in San Francisco back in 2004 with releases from The Falcon and Enemy You, but has went on to develop some of the best bands in punk rock.

This collection provides a snapshot of a diverse roster of artists and we think you'll enjoy it listen after listen. This record also comes with artwork detailing all the songs and a collage of pics and posters that document the past ten years.
