Having made her name in the White Girl Mob with Kreayshawn & V-Nasty and now out as a solo artist, Lil Debbie has a major following both online and live at shows. While the breakup of White Girl Mob should have been a devastating blow it only made her resolve to succeed on her own but it took her good friend, RiFF RaFF seeing her potential to get her into the recording booth. Since then she's put out an impressive collection of music with video's reaching over a million views each and rising. She's worked and performed with a bevy of the most unique and interesting artists as well as with producers from Benny Cassette to NikNikateen. This year she is scheduled to release her first full-length album, California Sweetheart.

She's released California Sweetheart Volume 1 and Volume 2 separately selling several thousand copies in digital only form. She's now making this available for physical purchase in limited form only.
