Seattle's Success have been tearing up the West Coast for a little while and they finally got the attention of the grouchy old curmudgeons at Red Scare. Their not-so-major label debut is called, "Radio Recovery", and it's a half hour of singalong posi-punk, akin to bands like Broadway Calls or Red City Radio. This year is already looking good for Success: they're booked at some big festivals and playing shows with Masked Intruder, they've been included on S1D's Warped Tour comp, and were among the "Bands You Need To Know in 2015" as picked by Alternative Press. Success is inevitable!

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Have built a good fanbase on the West Coast, up next: the world!
- Massive touring booked, playing Pouzza Fest, Punk Rock Bowling, etc.
- Song featured on this year's Warped Tour compilation and they sell a ton of those things!
- Produced by Steve Rizun (The Flatliners, Junior Battles) and it sounds HUGE.
