

TROPICAL DISCO HUSTLE

VOLUME TWO

CULTURES OF SOUL RECORDS

Cultures of Soul is proud to release the highly anticipated follow-up to the widely successful Tropical Disco Hustle, an album full of rare disco tunes that exude a Caribbean flavor. This volume takes us back to Trinidad and Jamaica and sends us on a few new adventures in St. Lucia and Guadeloupe.

Three tracks by Wild Fire including "The Dealer," as well as two other classic disco tracks, "Dance With Me" and "Try Making Love," can be heard on this new compilation. The album also features two killer disco workouts by the Tru Tones, "Dancing" and "Let's Party," with the latter having been heavily influenced by the Jacksons. Both tracks are rare and in demand by DJs and record collectors alike.

Also featured here is an excellent cover of Chanson's "Don't Hold Back" by reggae legend Derrick Harriott, and the under-the-radar, African-influenced disco tune "Caribbean People" by Camille Hildevert.

This album was compiled and researched by Deano Sounds, with edits by french DJ-extraordinary Waxist Selecta and legendary UK disco DJ Al Kent.
