

J DILLA

THE DIARY

The Introduction
The Anthem (feat. Frank & Dank)
Fight Club (feat. Nottz & Boogie)
The Shining Pt. 1 (Diamonds) (feat. Kenny Wray)
The Shining Pt. 2 (Ice)
Trucks
Gangsta Boogie

Drive Me Wild
Give Them What They Want
The Creep (The O)
The Ex (feat. Bilal)
So Far
Fuck The Police
The Diary

Pay Jay Productions, Inc. was the company James Dewitt "J Dilla" Yancey founded in 2001 to house his production company and his publishing company.

The Estate of James Yancey has revived PayJay as a functioning imprint, and announced the release of J Dilla's long lost vocal album, The Diary. The tracks come straight from multi-track masters found on 2-inch tape shortly after Dilla's passing in 2006. Many were mixed by Dilla himself. Those that weren't have been mixed by engineer Dave Cooley, who worked extensively with Dilla during his years in Los Angeles. Using Dilla's original demo mixes as his guide, Cooley attempted to finalize Dilla's vision for these tracks, while keeping all of the elements that Dilla had in place in his original demos present.

The Diary is an album of vocal performances recorded between in the early 2000s over production by the likes of Madlib, Pete Rock, Nottz, House Shoes, Karriem Riggins and others. The Diary is presented here in a special limited edition cassette tape.

CATALOG: PJ007-CA
LABEL: Pay Jay
STREET DATE: 04/15/16

PAY JAY