STICK TO THE PLAN

THE RIGHT HERE STICK TO THE PLAN

That's All We've Got and More
A Letter From the Creator of the Universe
Judge Me When I'm Sober
Seattle, Breathe
Darling, Make a Scene
'Til the Wheels Come Off
Fall Asleep, Hate Yourself, or Leave
I'll Show Myself Out
If This Land Isn't My Land
Leaving for a Reason
Drunk and Rolling Around
You Won't Miss Me When I'm Gone
One More and We'll Move on With Our Lives

Minneapolis, MN 2016...

Straight out of (one of) those beloved Twin Cities, The Right Here has been doling out their rowdy brand of rock'n'roll since 2010. Embracing a style similar, and kindred to beloved bands such as Lucero, Drag the River, Old 97's, Avail, Red City Radio, and home town brothers The Replacements.

The Right Here debuted their first full length, All Herky Jerky, in 2012. Not long after, founding members Lewis Miller and Luke Lecheler solidified the current lineup with the addition of drummer Ryan Haasch and bassist Adam Peterson. They have since shared the stage with a variety of talent, including Tim Barry, Two Cow Garage, Nato Coles and the Blue Diamond Band, and Masked Intruder. The Right Here sees the fruits of their non-stop efforts paid off with the completion of their second full length, Stick To The Plan.

The Right Here have created their own sound that fits in perfectly with the current punk rock'n'roll scene that's happening in Minneapolis right now. Songs including the thundering, foot stomping, barn burners "Judge Me When I'm Sober", "Seattle, Breathe", "If This Land Isn't My Land" and lead off single & video "Leaving For A Reason" are the perfect combination of punk, blue collar rock, and alt-country that will make your music loving heart pitter-patter with excitement. Soak on up the somber, hauntingly, beautiful suds of "Drunk and Rolling Around" followed by the heart-felt stunner "Leaving for a Reason" and you will find yourself immersed in true, pure, rock and roll from the Heartland.
