

DAN VAPID AND THE CHEATS

HORROR SECTION THE TWILIGHT ZONE

split 10" + CD insert

Eccentric Pop Records presents a brand new Twilight-Zone-inspired split 10" from Dan Vapid and the Cheats (ex-Screaming Weasel, the Riverdales, the Mopes) and Horror Section! Two of the greatest contemporary American pop punk bands tear through six hook-heavy, melodic punk anthems inspired by their favorite episodes of the greatest show to ever grace American televisions. This is a killer release, pressed on color vinyl and packaged in eye-popping original artwork featuring the characters from the songs (and anchored, of course, by the legendary creator and host Rod Serling).

The Twilight Zone split 10" is the first new music offered by Dan Vapid and the Cheats since their 2013 sophomore full length, "Two." The band has an international army of fans who have followed Vapid's career since he first rose to prominence with Screaming Weasel and the Riverdales in the 1990s. Horror Section, Eccentric Pop's best-selling band, has a rabid fanbase of their own who recently snatched up the entire first pressing of their "Season of the Witch" 7" in under one hour.

Track Listing:

Dan Vapid and the Cheats: Twenty Two
Dan Vapid and the Cheats: Where Is Everybody?
Dan Vapid and the Cheats: Come Wander With Me
Horror Section: The Obsolete Man
Horror Section: The Howling Man
Horror Section: Terror at 20,000 Feet

Selling Points:

Former members of Screaming Weasel, Riverdales, Mopes

Feature write up in Rue Morgue Magazine (500k print and online reach)

Limited edition color vinyl

CD insert

Eye-catching cover art featuring well known Twilight Zone characters

First new recordings from Dan Vapid and the Cheats since 2013 LP

Horror Section is Eccentric Pop's best-selling artist

FORMAT: 10"+ CD INSERT
LABEL: ECCENTRIC POP RECORDS
CAT: EP26
STREET: 5/19/2017

