OH NO VS. NOW-AGAIN 3

OH NO VS NOW-AGAIN (V.3)

Now-Again presents its third Oh No library offering: heavy hip hop based on samples from the Now-Again Catalog.

Oh No's debut album for Now-Again was also the first in our music library series - and was one of our most successful exercises in creating modern "library music" for easy synchronization. For this, his third entry, Oh No combs through the vast array of Now-Again's catalog - from American soul, funk and jazz to Zambian hard rock to Australian prog to Swedish psych - create a series of beats that range in mood and style and all contain Oh No's trademark swagger. Fans of the variety of projects that Oh No is a part - from his Gangrene project with Alchemist to his production for the likes of Jedi Mind Tricks, Action Bronson and Talib Kweli - will be pleased with the variety of beats contained within.

This limited edition is CD is packaged in a "mini-LP" gatefold and is available in limited quantities. Once they're gone, they're gone.
