Philadelphia emcee and OBH capo Dark Lo and Harlem based producer V Don have joined forces once again on their new collaborative album “Timeless”. Frequent collaborators (“The Message”, “They Killed Pookie”, “Alleyway Piss” and “Blow 3”) “Timeless” is their first full-length project together, and this eleven (11) song soundtrack to the streets leaves fans of the duo wanting more. V Don’s dark and gritty production is the perfect background for Dark Lo’s tales of the streets, violence and crime. “Timeless” includes features from the legendary Roc Marciano, Griselda artist Benny the Butcher, and frequent V Don collaborator, Eto.

V Don has been a force on the New York rap scene for several years and has worked with almost everyone in the game. His production of “Ghetto Symphony” for A$AP Rocky brought V Don’s sounds to every corner of the country and he hasn’t looked back since. V Don is coming off of a hot 2018 campaign after releasing EP’s with Willie the Kid, Adonis, and his very own project “The Bone Collector.” Dark Lo is best known for his work alongside AR-AB and the Philly hip hop scene. His distinctive voice and style is reminiscent of classic Philly rap and he brings his energy on each track on the new album. Dark Lo has also had a strong 2018 after dropping his anticipated album “The Testimony.”
