Punk Rock Raduno is an Italian punk rock festival founded in 2016. The tongue-in-cheek slogan "Three Chords, No Brain!" says a lot about the music that has their main focus: Non-pretentious Ramones-fueled punk rock.

With very strong line ups for their first editions the festival quickly became an institution in the worldwide pop punk scene, which resulted in attendents from any outskirts of Europe, as well as from Japan, Mexico and the USA.

In July 2019 the 4th edition took place, with again a killer line-up, including beloved groups such as The Avengers, Pansy Division, Kepi Ghoulie, Dan Vapid & The Cheats, The Copyrights, Kurt Baker Combo, The Creeps, The Murderburgers & more hitting the stage.

This LP is a celebration of the festival with 23 unreleased or rare songs by bands that were on the bill this year. A great souvenir for the people who actually attended the festival, but on its own it's an awesome compilation to party to just as much. And a perfect way to hear who's who in pop punk today along with some all time faves!

On top of the stacked album, the included download code will get you 3 bonus tracks!
