2020 was a crazy year for everybody. Especially with no touring due to Covid-19. But Termanology made the best of it and spent most of the year working with the likes of Statik Selektah on their group 1982's The Quarantine album, a new mixtape 50 Bodies 6, and producing two projects for up and coming rapper UFO Fev and R&B singer Mia Jae.

Now in 2021, Termanology continues to build his legacy with his new project GOYA 3. Produced entirely by Shortfyuz, this release is the third installment in the series from the MC+producer combo, following up 2013's GOYA (also released on Brick Records) and the 2014 self-release Mas GOYA.

"I love the vibe on this new album, because Shotfyuz and I have created a sound together with the GOYA brand, combining hard-core punchline rap with underground boom-bap beats, but it is mixed with a heavy Latin influence which sounds different than any of my other projects".

With over 40 Projects under his belt since his debut mixtape Hood Politics in 2003, Term continues to stay hungry on GOYA 3, sharing the booth with some of the dopest new lyricists in the game, including NEMS, UFO FEV, ROME STREETZ, JAY ROYALE, ETO, CRIMEAPPLE, NYMLO, OUN P and more, while veterans like LIL FAME of M.O.P., TEK of SMIF-N-WESSUN, CASSIDY, PLANET ASIA, ST. DA SQUAD and TONY TOUCH also make appearances.

GOYA 3 is packed with dope rhymes and powerful production all the way through.
