The Lillingtons 2006 Red Scare debut is once again available on vinyl. Here's what Red Scare head honcho Tobias Jeg had to say of the project when originally issued:

They're back and with the original lineup that earned them the title of "Fat Mike's Favorite Band" all those years ago! Straight outta The Blasting Room, The Lillingtons have returned with an album chock full catchy hits. It's classic Lillingtons: the Red Menace, alien invasions, double agent spies, and every other kinda B-movie hijinx you can think of.

Their vivid imaginations are matched only by their ability to write dynamic and catchy punk rock ditties. The Lillingtons are back, and it's never too late to see what the legend is made of!

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Their first new album since their essential records on Lookout!
- Recorded at The Blasting Room (DESCENDENTS, RISE AGAINST, LAGWAGON)
- Members of TEENAGE BOTTLE ROCKET, who are kickin' ass and takin' names in their own right!
- We're hiring a publicist, gonna do ads a-plenty, send it to over 40 print and online zines, etc. Yay.
